

FIRST FOOD AWARD . . . J. Patrick Frawley Jr., president and chairman of the board of Schick-Ever-sharp Corp., receives the first Food Industry for America honor award from Dale Peterson, board chairman of the Food Industry for America, and Al Collins, president of the Food Industry for America. Collins is merchandising manager for Thriftmart Markets. The award was presented to Frawley for his dedication to America and to the free enterprise system.

Native Son Appointed Vice Consul

James E. McGee, son of Mrs. Hilda McGee of 23709 Vine Ave., has been appointed a career Foreign Service officer by President Johnson, according to the State Department. McGee will serve as a vice consul and a secretary in the Diplomatic Service.

A Torrance native son, McGee was graduated from Narbonne High School and received his BA degree in 1959 from the University of California, Los Angeles. He undertook post graduate work at L'Universite Laval, Quebec, Canada and the Universitetet Uppsala, Sweden.

The appointee, who makes his home with his family at 2116 Columbia Pike, Arlington, Va., is now attending the Foreign Service Institute in Arlington in preparation for his overseas assignment.

Naval Exams to Be Held Dec. 12

The 19th annual national competitive examination for the Regular Naval Reserve Officers Training Corps will be given Dec. 12, according to Vice Admiral B. J. Semmes, Jr. chief of Naval Personnel.

Eligible high school seniors and graduates should submit their applications before Nov. 20. Application forms are available at local high schools, or from the local Navy recruiter Albert J. Metteny, chief engineman, at the U. S. Navy Recruiting Office, 1520 Cravens Ave.

Savings Firm Plans Univac Branch Web

Glendale Federal Savings and Loan Association announced it has contracted to install the first of the new type of Univac on-line teleteleregister network in all its 15 branch offices.

The $2 million system will include a Univac 490 computer coupled with a Teleteleregister Electronic Teller Network, according to Glendale Federal President J. E. Hoelt.

The system, when installed in late 1965, will enable a Glendale Federal Savings customer to receive service at any branch on any type of transaction with electronic speed.
